

Capricorn Animal Rescue

London Marathon, 25 April 2010

I am running in the London Marathon this year, to raise money for Capricorn Animal Rescue.

Capricorn do wonderful work in caring for animals needing food, a home, medical treatment and love.

The Marathon is on my 53rd Birthday and I'm hoping to celebrate by running my best marathon time - so my target is to finish in under 3 hours 40 minutes.

As I'll be 53, it would be great to raise £530 - though £5,300 would be even better. Whatever money is raised will be welcomed, as the animals at Capricorn are expensive to look after.

I'd appreciate you sponsoring me for whatever amount you can spare.
